

Qurbani Sheep Booking – Detailed Knowledge Base

Religious Greeting

Assalamu Alaikum Warahmatullahi Wabarakatuh is a traditional Islamic greeting. It conveys peace, mercy, and blessings of Allah. It is commonly used at the beginning of religious services such as Qurbani to show respect and goodwill.

Service Overview

This service allows customers to book Qurbani sheep in advance. The booking ensures that a healthy sheep is reserved and processed according to religious guidelines during the Qurbani period.

Pricing Explanation

The total cost for one Qurbani sheep is ₦15,000. This includes ₦13,500 for the sheep itself and ₦1,500 as a service charge. The service charge covers maintenance, handling, and slaughter coordination. There are no hidden charges beyond this amount.

Sheep Quality & Health

All sheep provided are healthy and well-maintained. They are raised with proper care, hygiene, and nutrition. This ensures the sheep meets religious and quality standards for Qurbani.

Weight Details

Each sheep has a live weight ranging between 27 to 30 kilograms. This weight range is suitable for Qurbani and ensures adequate meat yield.

Sheep Origin

The sheep are locally sourced breeds. Local breeds are preferred as they adapt well to the environment and are commonly accepted for religious sacrifice.

Slaughter & Delivery Options

After Qurbani, customers can either collect the meat directly or opt for home delivery depending on their location. Delivery availability may vary based on distance.

Farm Visit Facility

Customers are allowed to visit the farm directly to verify the sheep. Farm visits are available on Sundays between 9:00 AM and 5:00 PM.

Live Video Verification

For customers who cannot visit the farm physically, a live video call option is provided. This facility is mainly for customers from distant districts.

Booking & Contact

Customers can book or enquire about the Qurbani service by calling or sending a WhatsApp message to 7904187847.

Religious Reference

The service follows the teachings of the Qur'an, specifically Surah Al-Hajj, Verse 22:37, which emphasizes sincerity and intention in Qurbani.

Organization Credibility

The service is operated by a trusted organization approved by Central and State Government authorities and has over three years of experience.

Company Information

The Qurbani service is powered by Save Farmers LLC, UAE, and managed in India by Uzhavar Sandhai Pvt Ltd.
